Selling Many War Stamps.
Postmaster Clyde Yothers, clerks, and city and rural mail carriers are making every effort to promote the sale of War Savings certificates and thrift stamps. During the past few days they have been very busy bringing the same to the attention of the public and explaining the plan under which these stamps are issued and sold and their advantages to buyers as well as a means of rendering assistance to the government. The patrons have been quick to take advantage of the opportunity that these certificates offer. Of the carriers, Robinson Berg sold the greatest number yesterday, the first day they were placed on sale by the carriers. The foreigners are showing their patriotism by very liberally subscribing both to the certificates and the thrift stamps.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Connellsville people.

Mrs. J. L. Williams, 812 North Tenth St., Connellsville, says: "About five years ago I was dreadfully ill with kidney complaint. My back ached constantly and I had dizzy spells and headaches during which spots floated before my eyes. The doctors weren't helping me much and my husband finally persuaded me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I took four boxes and was entirely cured. My health remained good until about six months ago when my back began to be weak and painful again. Of course, I used Doan's Kidney Pills, getting two boxes at Clarke's Drug Store and they again rid me of the trouble. My health is now good."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Williams had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Delicious refreshments were served. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Louder, Miss Woodmancy of Dunbar, Claude Lowery, John Lowery, John Jamieson, and Miss Pearl Sandies of Connellyville.

Miss Caroline Jones of Pittsburg, representative of the War Work Council of the Y. W. C. A. gave a most interesting talk last night to the Uniontown high school audience on how the Y. W. C. A. has been impressed into the war work of the Allies as a stabilizer of the girlhood of America and France, organizer of women in Russia, maintainer of recreational centers for Red Cross units. Behind every soldier are from three to five civilians declared the speaker, whose purpose as to how that just so long as the morale and physique of the civilian army was maintained, the soldiers in the trenches would be assured of that support and those supplies without which man power avails nothing. "In England," said Miss Jones, "90 per cent of the war work is being done by women."

Quite a nice sum was realized by the King's Daughters from the large sale of fancywork and articles of a more staple nature.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all diseases comes from impure bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

PETEY DINK—Just Spoiled the Day for Mabel

By C. A. VOIGHT

The Ranch at the Wolverine

By B. M. BOWER

"Hm-mm!" Rumors had reached Seaback, thanks to Billy Louise's dropped lashes upon a certain occasion, which caused him to believe he saw further light.

"And if you're going to be horrid—"

"Will the lady he wants to marry give him another chance?"

"Don't you think she ought to—"

"He'll do anything he can to make amends," said Billy Louise, with conviction. "He'll take his medicine and go to jail if you insist," she added sorrowfully. "It will ruin his whole life, of course, and break a couple of women's hearts, but—"

"It's a bad thing, a mighty bad thing, when a man tries to get ahead too fast."

"It's a good thing when he learns the lesson without having to pay for it with his whole future," Billy Louise amended the statement.

Seaback smiled a little, behind his fingers that kept tugging at his whiskers.

"Did Charlie Fox send Miss Portia—"

"He doesn't know I had any intention of coming," Billy Louise assured him quickly and with perfect truth. "They'll both be awfully surprised when they find out"—which was also perfectly true—"and when they see you ride up, they'll think you've got the sheriff at your back. I haven't a doubt they—"

"There are a few points I'd like to clear up, if you can help me," Seaback interrupted. "All this rustling that has been going on for the past year and a half: are Fox and the Melike woman mixed up in that? I want," he said, "to help the young man—and her. But if they have been operating on a large scale, I'm afraid—"

"I believe Charlie must have been influenced in some ways by bad acquaintances," Billy Louise answered more steadily than she felt. "But this rustling has been of a petty kind. I won't apologize for him, Mr. Seaback. I think it's perfectly awful, what he has done. But I think it would be more awful still not to give him a chance. The other rustling is some outside gung, I'm sure. If Charlie was mixed up with them, it's very slightly—just enough to damn him utterly if he were arrested and tried. He isn't a natural criminal. He's just weak. And he's learned his lesson. It's up to you, Mr. Seaback, to say whether he shall have a chance to profit by the lesson. And there's poor old Martha in it, too. She just worships Charlie and would do anything—even steal for him."

Seaback continued for a while, and Billy Louise watched him intently from the tail of her eye. To tell the plain truth, she was in a panic of fear at what she had done.

Last night, when she lay curled up by the stove under Ward's wolf-skin coat, this seemed the only possible way out: To tell Seaback and trust to his kindness and generosity to refrain from pushing the case. To have Charlie Fox give back what he had stolen of pay for it—anything that would satisfy Seaback's sense of justice—and let him start honestly. She had thought that Seaback would be merciful, if she told him in the right way; but now, when she stole a glance at his bent, brooding face, she was frightened. He did not look merciful, but stern and angry. She remembered then that stealing cattle is the one crime a cattleman finds it hard to forgive.

Billy Louise might have spared herself some mental anguish if she could have known that Seaback was brooding over the wonder of a woman's love that pardons and condones a man's sin.

"I'm glad you came and told me this," he said at last. "Very glad, indeed, Miss MacDonald. Certain steps have been taken lately to push this rustling and general lawlessness, and if you had not told me, I'm afraid the mills of justice would have ground your friends. Of course the law would be merciful to Mrs. Melike. No jury would send an old woman like that—By the way, that breed they have had working for them—he is in on the deal, too, I take it."

"Yes, of course. They had to have someone to help. Martha can't do any

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE

Duty Demands Robust Health Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by ill and ails. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight—then ill-health is coming with pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman oftentimes becomes a prey to ill after all.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypodermic ranks. No unhealthy, dull, draggy, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-stoppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypodermic stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver. Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypodermic or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thoroughly scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, fit, flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.

Hypodermic contains those mighty strength-producing agents, leucithin and iron pentionate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and its organs. Its ingredients are absolutely necessary to the blood. In nine cases out of ten a run-down, nervous, pale, listless, complexioned man or woman, whose troubles are due to lack of leucithin and iron pentionate in the system.

Your mental and physical strength and endurance depends upon a leucithin and iron pentionate laden blood, steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any angle.

This wonder tonic, hypodermic, which is as perfect as science can get, nature meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worried men and women. Hypodermic means nature's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The powder and pain way of affecting beauty is not needed by hypodermic women and girls. Their blood, filled with nature's healthy stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks.

No head of going through life slowly and always feeling miserable in this age of medical science join the hypodermic ranks. It puts into you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life into your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone.

Hypodermic may be had at your drug store or direct from us for $1.00 per bottle. It will work the price.

"Hm-mm—do you know, Miss MacDonald, whether there was any intimacy between your friends—and the man we had for stock inspector, Mr. Fox?"

"—can't say as to that," Billy Louise, you see, did not know much about details, but the little she did know made her hedge.

"There's a queer story about Olney. You know he has left the country, don't you? It seems he rode very hurriedly up to the depot at Wilmer to take the train. Just as he stepped on, a fellow who knew him by sight noticed a piece of paper pinned on the back of his coat. He jerked it loose. It was a—very peculiar document for a man to be wearing on his back," Seaback pulled at his whiskers, but it was not pulling which quivered the corners of his lips. "The man said Olney seemed greatly upset over something and had evidently forgotten the paper until he felt it being a loose. He said Olney looked as if he was the color of a pork-rind. The train was pulling out. The man took the paper over to a saloon and let several others read it. They—um-mm—decided that it should be placed in the hands of the authorities. Have—um—your—friends—ever mentioned the matter to you?"

"No," said Billy Louise, and her eyes were wide.

"Hm-mm! We must discover, if we can, Miss MacDonald, whether they are in any way implicated with this man Olney. I believe that this is at present more important than the recovery of any—um—cattle of mine which they may have appropriated."

Billy Louise looked at him for a minute. "Mr. Seaback, you're awfully dear about this," she told him. "I haven't been as square as you; and I've been—"

Later, Mrs. Seaback, I don't love Charlie Fox a bit. I love somebody else, and I'm going to marry him. He's so square, I'd hate to have him think I even let you believe something that wasn't true. It's Martha I'm thinking of, Mr. Seaback. I was afraid you wouldn't let Charlie off just for her sake, but I thought—maybe if you just thought I—thought you to do it for me, why, maybe—with two women to

America Must Win the War

America will win the war when the American mind fully grasps the whole horror of Europe's decimated manhood. Every American man, woman and child must do their bit according to their ability. The rich must give of their wealth; the poor of their labor. All should co-operate with the government in every official work recommended by the President.

The Knights of Columbus, the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Men's Hebrew Association, have all been recognized by the government as the proper agencies to furnish recreation centers for all United States Soldiers regardless of creed.

The Knights of Columbus need for immediate use in establishing and maintaining recreation centers at home and overseas three million dollars.

The buildings will be open to all at all times; no private meeting. No society affairs behind closed doors. They are for ALL the soldiers all the time.

The Knights of Columbus must render this help overseas as well as at home, and in addition Pope Benedict has asked them to help support the American Red Cross in special work in Belgium and in general work on the battle fronts.

Think over the wonderful sacrifices of the Western Pennsylvania boys, the flower of our young manhood. They have given up positions, family, professions, business and future prospects. You are a direct beneficiary.

What could we give in money, time and labor to compare with their risks, loss and sacrifice? Think this over in your family council. Help the government. Help the soldiers. By assisting the Knights of Columbus in raising $250,000 now, you can bring peace into the minds and hearts of all the soldiers. You are keeping God with them wherever they are. You are helping maintain close communication between mother and son, and you are placing a barrier between temptation and every boy in uniform.

Your subscription will mean a glad Christmas message to every soldier of the nation. They will enjoy your share of the hospitality during the strenuous days of training. They will remember your friendship in the more tragic days to come. When America's first Army must fill the gap where German shells have reduced the ranks of the Allies.

Make up your mind to give up to the limit of your patriotism.

If you have no money give freely of your time and energy.

You are urged to attend a meeting to be held Sunday, December 9, at 8 P. M., in Euclid School Hall, Prospect street, when all the details of a campaign for funds will be explained.

J. J. BRADY, Chairman.
LEO J. LOWNEY, Secretary.

Solicitation will start Monday morning, December 10th. Make all checks payable to J. J. Cuneo, Box 403, Conneltsville, Pa.

Rules for Insuring Early Delivery of Xmas Packages

In order to facilitate the mailing and handling of Christmas packages the following list of things not to do has been drawn up by the local postal authorities:

"Don't ask the parcel post man to call at your residence for a parcel you desire to mail. Postal regulations require you to mail them at the post office."

"Don't wrap your parcel with a piece of flimsy tissue-paper and tie it with a dainty ribbon. They seldom arrive at destination the same way."

"Don't wrap a parcel weighing more than one pound with light weight twine. Use a heavy brown twine and don't cut the excess twine too close to the knot as it invariably pulls out, allowing the wrapper to become separated from the parcel and sometimes lost."

"Don't fasten the ends of the wrapping paper with pins. Employees are frequently injured by coming in contact with them."

"Don't allow your parcel to exceed 20 pounds in weight if it is destined beyond the second parcel post zone. Use two boxes. Camp Hancock is in the fourth zone; Camp Lee is in the third zone; Camp Sherman is in the third zone; Camp Meade is in the third zone; Camp Gordon is in the fourth zone."

"Don't think the clerk at the window is inquiring of the contents of your parcel in order to satisfy a curiosity. Postal regulations require that contents of a package be known before accepted for mailing."

"The mails are already heavily overloaded, so don't wait until the last day to mail your parcels. Christmas parcels should be mailed not later than Monday or Tuesday, December 17th, and 18th."

"Don't address your mail in a careless manner. Millions of letters and other pieces of mail which cannot be delivered or returned to sender are each year sent to the division of dead letters."

"Be sure your return address is plainly written upon the upper left hand corner of the address side of the article mailed. Don't abbreviate or use lead pencil."

"Don't overlap stamps—as an overlapped stamp ceases to be of value. Clip this out and save it. It will be handy to refer to."

BURNS, CUTS, BRUISES

San Cura Ointment Relieves Pain, Draws Out Poison and Heals Promptly.

For example, it is guaranteed by the Laughrey Drug company, to relieve itching, bleeding and protruding piles, eczema, tetter, ulcers, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles and pimples, or money back.
